

CVHOC High School Benefit Show®

February 10, 2010

Be a Sponsor

For the 13th year, the Conejo Valley Harmony Oaks Chorus¹ (CVHOC) is producing a show whose proceeds benefit local high school choral music programs. This year's production, "Give My Regards to Broadway", stars the incomparable Dick Van Dyke, who also acts as the show emcee. Mr. Van Dyke is donating his time and talents for the 11th straight year.

Scheduled for Sunday, May 9th at 4:00 pm in the Kavli Theater in the Thousand Oaks Civic Arts Plaza, the show features Van Dyke, five (5) local high schools, and several award winning men's quartets. Past performances in the 1800 seat venue have generated over $130,000 for 12 local high school choral programs.

On behalf of the Harmony Oaks Chorus, Adapti Tech, Inc. is offering local area companies and individuals an opportunity to help sponsor this show. Sponsor contributions will be applied to internet advertisements to defray the CVHOC production and publicity costs. Adapti Tech, Inc. will provide the following:

1. A full page, full color advertisement in the show program (approximately 5.5" x 8.5");
2. A full page, full color web page promoting the sponsor hosted on the CVHOC website www.cvhoc.com; ^{2,3}
3. Links on the CVHOC on-line show flyer to the sponsor's full web page hosted on the chorus site will be provided;
4. Links on the hosted full web pages will be provided to the sponsor's web site if one exists. If one does not exist, Adapti Tech, Inc offers special discounts for CVHOC sponsors to create one;
5. Sponsor 8.5" x 11" full web page will be color printable suitable for display;
6. Each sponsor full web page will be used in a Power Point Presentation displayed in the theater before the performance and during intermission.

Each sponsor will also receive two (2) complementary premium tickets to the show, a $72 value.

The total cost is $300 per sponsor; however, due to program limitations, the number of sponsor is limited. Call us early to make your reservation.
